Words of the Past - Deekshit E 2016-01-12

"Present turns to past and future turns to present, but the past never changes its stance..." What we do in the present is not a big deal, but after it has gone into the past, it will become something memorable. In our past we had done so many nonsensical things, but now when we remember those days a smile comes to our lips. "Our present is like watching a horror film, and our past is like the experience that we enjoyed in the cinema hall." Words of the past: the story is about a person, who even after completing his graduation didn't gain any sense about his future. Seasons have changed but he still didn't get any idea. Like others he has a life too, like others he too enjoyed his life, but not like others. He went back to his past. His school, his college, his nonsense's, his crushes, his friends, his girls, his enjoyment, silly fights, and his past life... These thoughts made sense to him. "Life means some of years, emotions and notorious things. Behind everything a strange emotional experience will be present." His sensible thoughts on his past make sense to him. So he decided to make it into a book. He made his past into a book. Are you ready to recollect your past?

Madras, Chennai and the Self: Conversations with the City - Tulsi Badrinath 2015-01-29

In a metropolis where customs are paramount, humility essential, the evil-eye feared and showing-off considered distasteful, how do people navigate the streams of tradition and modernity? How does the self form a lasting equation with the city? Some do it with ease, some with effort, but they all have a special love for the city - for a tradition they find organic and lived; for the co-existence of various religions; for the distinct sense of community and neighbourhoods; for the spacious inner life. In Madras, Chennai and the Self: Conversations with the City, Tulsi Badrinath creates a layered image of Chennai by sifting through her memories, and by narrating the stories of those who call it home - the current Prince of Arcot, Dalit writer and activist P Sivakami, superstar Vikram and karate-expert K Seshadri, among others. In their words come alive key aspects of the city - the fine beaches along the Bay of Bengal, Fort St. George, coconut and mango trees, jasmine stalls, cricket fever, classical music and dance, the twin temptations of idli and dosai, temple crowds and radical political movements.

Beautiful Encounter in Life - Amitkumar R. Shelar 2021-10-30

I had dedicated 2 years of my life to write this book and connect to every heart out there, to bring back the fond memories of our childhood and the years growing up. I had shared my experiences with fictitious content which directly connects to the heart. A few pages of the book will narrate Harsh's childhood in Kendriya Vidyalaya in different states with various cultures. You will get a glimpse of the college days of Harsh and Anagha where you will witness their beautiful love story. The book will help you correlate with your own lives and at some point, there will be a big smile on your face; and for me, that would be my achievement. Many of you may feel nostalgic about it and will cherish the beautiful and fond moments of your lives. Also, you will be able to see situations where Harsh and Anagha are involved in the welfare of society.

Administrative reforms for India - VIJAYA KRUSHNA VARMA 2020-06-29

Administrative reforms are long overdue in India as the present administrative system is obsolete and continuing as a legacy from British Raj. It is not coping with the ever-changing needs and aspirations of the ever-growing population of the country. Administrative set-up should be redesigned to work more efficiently and to bring transparency, accountability, efficacy and high-speed response into governance to meet the aspirations of the people before their anger turns into revolt against the elected governments. Zero corruption government should be the bedrock of an advanced democracy. We need to restructure and reboot the present administrative format into a more responsive entity to give quality services and equal opportunities to all citizens, instantly on demand at a single platform. These administrative reforms are aimed at removing corruption, arrogance and lethargy at all levels and in all forms
